

FIGURE 14.20. The first linear principal component of a set of data. The line minimizes the total squared distance from each point to its orthogonal projection onto the line.